Excerpt: .may come into their hands respectively in any one year. This clause does not in express terms modify or repeal the provisions of the act of 1870 before referred to; that in discharge of his duties under this act he and his securities in his official bond, his and their legal representatives, shall be subject to the same penalties, liabilities, motions and remedies, which he and they now are, or hereafter shall be subject to in relation to State-taxes. Does it have that effect by implication? May not the clause of each referred to stand consistent the one with the other? If so did not the law, which devolved upon the sheriff the duty of collecting the school-moneys, render his securities liable for their proper disbursements? The law at the date of said bond clearly devolved upon the sheriff the duty of collecting the...
