Whitney, Esq., as a regular student, and was thus engaged when the Rebellion broke out. In response to President Lincoln's proclamation for volunteers, he entered Washington, D. O., on the 18th of April 1861, as a private, in the now historic Washington Artillerists of Pottsville, Pa., one of the first Companies to reach the Capitol of the Nation. During this three months service he was tendered a commission in the regular army, which he declined. Upon the formation of the 48th Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, for three years, in September, 1861, he was commissioned Second Lieutenant of Company G by Governor Curtin, being the junior office in the regiment. His service during the war was honorable to himself, and creditable to his State. By successive promotion, to 1st. Lieutenant and Captain, he finally became Major of the Regiment. After the close of the war he engaged in business in Pottsville, Pa. He has always taken a lively interest in the welfare of the soldier, is a prominent member of the Grand Army of the Republic, having commanded the Department of Pennsylvania in 1869, and continually identified since in every movement for the welfare of that organization. He is also a member of the National Guard of the State, being LieutenantColonel of the Second Regiment of Philadelphia. Colonel Bosbyshell's connection with the United States Mint began on the 4th of May, 1869, when Ex-Governor Pollock then Director,...
