Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A chapbook by Jane Rosenberg LaForge. 25 elegiac and unflinching poems that harvest a transformative beauty from the fields of memory and loss. Rosenberg LaForge points toward the beauty of inevitability; death is less an end than a step toward the infinite, and you can/ no longer resist the distance. Reading these poems is often akin to diving into a rainbow of saffron and petrol, where the choices one makes may not be choices at all. -Leslie McGrath, poet and author of Out from the Pleiades: a Novella (Jaded Ibis Press, 2014) Reading In Remembrance of the Life is like reading Virginia Woolf if she were writing poetry-one image triggers another appearing to emerge from the unconscious.a book that the reader will return to again and again. -Chella Courington, author of The Somewhat Sad Tale of the Pitcher and the Crow and Love Letter to Biology 250. Published by Spruce Alley Press,
