Cord is a spy for the elite Special Activities Division of the National Clandestine Services of the CIA. Jake Cord, CIA agent, is embroiled in a plot that spans the globe from Washington to Monte Carlo, Tehran, Riyadh and Matamoros. The reader is led the through paths of intrigue and betrayal that leads to the highest levels of government. Jake Cord is an unconventional spy. His mode of dress are faded jeans, white starched shirt and cowboy boots. He is an ex-SEAL with lightning-quick hand-to-hand combat skills-an expert with weapons and explosives. His muscular six-foot-two frame and grayish-blue eyes have a unique sparkle, a warm smile that could melt an iceberg, a ruggedly handsome face, and a soft spoken western drawl comprises the image most people have of him. People that don't know Jake think he is just a country hick-a false assumption to the chagrin of his adversaries. He is very bright and quick-witted with a good-old-boy country charm and sense of humor. He can also be a deadly...
