In a letter addressed to the Vice President of the Chicago Woman s Educational Union, Mrs. E. Strasburger Miller, dated April 3, 1894, Prof. David Swing proposed a committee, consisting of members of the Jewish, Catholic and Protestant bodies, for compiling a book of Bible Selections for Schools. This committee was duly appointed by the Educational Union and their card follows this introduction. The book, wrote Prof. Swing, ought not to be large. It should be read over and over until the selections should be memorized. The more familiar they become, the more will they be loved. 2. Selections. Teachers are ever ready to welcome helps that are of the highest character, and at the same time economize research and study. Hence Bible selections, examined and approved by persons of different faiths, commend themselves to instructors, as portions selected by one individual could not do. 3. Unison. The reading or recitation of Bible verses in unison, by a number of pupils, with practice, becomes both instructive and inspiring. And children who are too young to read, will repeat simple selections after their teachers, with delight. 4. Version. The version recognized when appeals in courts are made to the Bible, by English law (which is the basis of United States law generally) is the version from which these selections are taken, because the public school is established pre-eminently for the state. But all leading versions are regarded as having some points of superiority, and as being, in substance, essentially the same.
