Reviews

This book is definitely not effortless to start on reading through but extremely fun to learn. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

It happened one hundred years ago it happened today It was a lovely day in June. Elizabeth was enjoying a visit to Upper Canada Village with her Grade Seven class when a strange compulsion urged her toward Cooks Tavern. Curious, she walked into the old building, and stepped into the past! A fire burns in the fireplace. . . men in buckskins sit around the tables. . . she is wearing a long dress of grey homespun. . . Why, its young Elizabeth Frobisher, said one of the men. But Im not, Elizabeth wanted to say, Im not Elizabeth Frobisher! Im Elizabeth Duncan! A story to fascinate readers of all ages - rich in historical detail - but above all, a good adventure tale, beautifully told. . . . a time-shift story in which. . . the transition is handled with remarkable skill. . . (Globe and Mail) Karleen Bradford is an award-winning writer of historical and fantasy fiction for children and young adults. Born in Canada, she lived in Argentina until she went back to Toronto to university. After university she married a young Geography student who morphed into a Foreign Service Officer with the Canadian Government and they spent the next 34 years travelling the world. Grist for the writing mill. Husband retired, she now lives near Orillia, Ontario.
